

Faculty Résumés

Name: Majida Yakhlef

Courses Taught:

AR 356 Urban Planning

AR 419 Design (6)

AR 587 Graduation Project (2)

AR 239 Workshops

AR 311 Architectural Design (3)

AR 586 Graduation Project (1)

Educational Credentials

BSc. MSc. Architecture, Institute of Construction and Architecture, Kyiv, Ukraine, 1981-1988

Ph.D. Architecture, University of Construction and Architecture, Kyiv, Ukraine, 1993-1996

Teaching Experience

Assistant Professor, Applied Science Private University, Jordan, 2011-present.

Professional Experience

Consultant, Senior planner, Tarots-Syria, 2009-2011

Consultant, Senior planner, "GAM," Greater Amman Municipality, Jordan, 2008

Manager, Designer, ATY building systems Inc, USA, 2003-2006

Associate Architect, Architect, Fentress and Brad Burn, USA, 2002

City planner, Planner, Ministry of municipal and ruler affairs and the environment, Jordan, 1990-1993

Licenses/Registration

Selected Publications and Recent Research for the past 3 years

1. Yakhlef, M. Abed, A. (2019), Identification of Brownfield Sites Classification Typologies: Case Study of Amman, Jordan. Journal of Engineering and Applied Sciences. Vol. 14, No. (10), P.P. 3144 - 3149. DOI: 10.3923/jeasci.2019.3144.3149.
2. Amal Abed, Majida Yakhlef, "Brownfield Regeneration as a Strategy for Sustainable Development: Amman Case Study." International Journal of Technology 11(4) 732-742((2020)
3. M, Yakhlef, et al. "Examining the Efficiency and Effectiveness of Architecture Distance E-Learning during the Covid Pandemic." Design Engineering ISSN: 0011-9342 | the Year 2021 Issue: 9 | Pages: 16 - 27

Professional Memberships

Member of Jordanian Engineers Association

Member of the American Institute of Architecture since 1998.

Member of CNU, Congress for the New Urbanism since 2000