

Faculty of Art & Design
Study Plan for the Master Program in the Interior Design
Graduation requirements: 33 credit hours

Academic year 2022-2023

| Comprehensive Examination Track          |   |              |
|--|---|--------------|
| A: Compulsory Subjects (24 Credit Hours) |   |              |
| Subject Number                           | Subject Title                                   | Credit Hours |
| 7020011                                  | Research Methods                                | 3            |
| 7020012                                  | Analysis and criticism of interior architecture | 3            |
| 7020013                                  | Contemporary trends in interior design          | 3            |
| 7020014                                  | Sustainability in interior design               | 3            |
| 7020015                                  | Studio 1  | 3            |
| 7020016                                  | Studio 2  | 3            |
| 7020017                                  | Project managements in interior design          | 3            |
| 7020018                                  | Smart technologies in interior design           | 3            |
| B: Elective Subjects (9 Credit Hours)    |   |              |
| Subject Number                           | Subject Title                                   | Credit Hours |
| 7020021                                  | Interior architecture restoration               | 3            |
| 7020022                                  | Advanced technologies in interior design        | 3            |
| 7020023                                  | Domestic Interior architecture studies          | 3            |
| 7020024                                  | Interior design teaching methods                | 3            |
| 7020025                                  | Safety and risk management in Interior design   | 3            |

| Thesis Track                             |   |              |
|--|---|--------------|
| A: Compulsory Subjects (24 Credit Hours) |   |              |
| Subject Number                           | Subject Title                                   | Credit Hours |
| 7020011                                  | Research Methods                                | 3            |
| 7020012                                  | Analysis and criticism of interior architecture | 3            |
| 7020013                                  | Contemporary trends in interior design          | 3            |
| 7020014                                  | Sustainability in interior design               | 3            |
| 7020015                                  | Studio 1  | 3            |
| 7020026                                  | Master Thesis                                   | 9            |
| B: Elective Subjects (9 Credit Hours)    |   |              |
| Subject Number                           | Subject Title                                   | Credit Hours |
| 7020019                                  | Introduction into indoor gardens design         | 3            |
| 7020020                                  | Artistic foreign terms                          | 3            |
| 7020021                                  | Interior architecture restoration               | 3            |
| 7020022                                  | Advanced technologies in interior design        | 3            |
| 7020023                                  | Domestic Interior architecture studies          | 3            |
| 7020024                                  | Interior design teaching methods                | 3            |
| 7020025                                  | Safety and risk management in Interior design   | 3            |
| 7020016                                  | Studio 2  | 3            |
| 7020017                                  | Project managements in interior design          | 3            |
| 7020018                                  | Smart technologies in interior design           | 3            |