Dear Dr Hadeel Ali Saed

Memorandum of Understanding

Please find enclosed, for your records, original copy of the new Memorandum of Understanding between our two institutions, which has now been signed by Queen's University Belfast.

Please accept my good wishes and thanks for your patience while our approval mechanisms were in process. Direct liaison with my colleague, Dr Neil Sadler, should continue in the first instance with regards ongoing discussions for future collaboration.

Yours sincerely

Ms Clare McVeigh

Memorandum of Understanding

1. This Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) was made on the 29th day of April 2019.

Between: Queens University Belfast, (hereinafter called Queen's), and the Applied Science Private University, Jordan (hereinafter called ASU)

2. The purpose of this MOU is to promote co-operation between Queen's, and ASU. The two institutions agree as follows: -

2.1 Each institution will encourage contact and co-operation between their faculty/school and administrative staff, departments and research institutes.

2.2 Within fields that are mutually acceptable, the following general forms of co-operation will be pursued: -

- Visits by and exchange of graduate students for study and research
- Visits by and interchange of staff for research, teaching and discussions
- Exchange of information
- Joint research activities
- The promotion of the profile of each University to the relevant student population in order to highlight international study opportunities

2.3. Each party understands that any subsequent financial arrangements will have to be negotiated on an activity by activity basis and will depend on the availability of funds. Specific details for the implementation of these activities will be developed mutually for specific projects. This MOU will have, from time to time, annexes attached to it with regard to these specific projects and any financial arrangements negotiated.

- 2.4. If the MOU remains dormant for three consecutive years it will be deemed to have lapsed. Where the MOU continues to be active, the two institutions agree to review it after five years from the date hereof. A party may terminate it at any time by mutual consent or by nine months' notice in writing to the other parties.
