First party: Applied Science Private University, Amman, 11937, Jordan, represented by Prof.Samiha Jarrah, University President, hereinafter referred to as the first party.

Second party: Imam Ja'afar Al-Sadiq University, Baghdad, 10001, Iraq, represented by Prof.Riyad Khalil Ibrahim, University President, hereinafter referred to as the second party.

The introduction of this MoU and its annexes, if any, shall be considered an integral part of it and shall be read together as a unit for all purposes and intentions.

Whereas the two parties desire to develop academic cooperation in various fields, the two parties conclude this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) and agree with the legislation in force in the two parties to the following:

Article 1- To develop the following collaborative activities in academic areas of mutual interest:

1. Exchange of faculty and researchers for purposes of teaching, conducting lectures, conducting research, and exchange of expertise.
2. Conducting collaborative research projects.
3. Exchange of students subject to terms to be outlined in a separate Student Exchange Agreement.
4. Jointly organize symposia, seminars, and conferences.
5. Exchange of academic information and materials.
6. Collaborative work in supervision in post-graduate studies.

Article 2- The development and implementation of specific activities based on this MoU will be separately negotiated and agreed upon between the faculties or institutes that carry out the specific projects. Both parties agree to carry out these activities in accordance with the laws and regulations of both countries and carry out their duties under this MoU in accordance with the legislation in force for the two parties.

Article 3- It is understood that implementing any of the types of cooperation stated in Article 1 shall depend upon the availability of resources and financial support for both parties if available.

Article 4- The two parties will agree to the division of ownership and returns of intellectual property prior to commencing any collaborative research activities under this MoU that may result in intellectual property, in conformity with relevant legislation.
Neither party shall be entitled to use the name, logo, and/or trademark of the other party without obtaining its written and prior consent and within the scope of this MoU

Article 5- This MoU may be amended or modified by written agreements signed by the representatives of both parties and will become part of this MoU.

Article 6- Disputes shall be resolved as amicably as possible. In the absence of a satisfactory solution for both parties, the Jordanian courts shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate disputes arising from the change and/or implementation of any item of the MoU.

Article 7- This MoU is valid for a period of four years commencing on the date signed by the last party, and may be renewed after being reviewed and renegotiated by both parties.

Article 8- This MoU may, at any time during its period of validity, be developed or terminated by one of the parties upon written notice to the other party not later than six months before the termination date. The termination will not affect ongoing activities.

Article 9- The MoU consists of nine articles, including this article, with the consent and acceptance of the Parties and in two identical originals.
