Article (1): These instructions shall be called (Instructions of the Applied Science Research Center at Applied Science Private University for the year (2022) and shall enter into force as of the date of their issuance.

Article (2): The following words, wherever they appear in these instructions, shall have the meanings assigned to them below unless the presumption indicates otherwise:

- University: Applied Science Private University.
- Center: Applied Science Research Center.
- President: The President of the University.
- Council: The Council of the Center.
- Director: Director of the Center.

Article (3): The Center is considered an independent administrative unit of the University and is associated with the President or his representative in writing from his deputies.

Article (4): The Center aims to achieve the following tasks:

- Conducting studies and research in the various sectors of scientific research according to the national priorities of scientific research, which are of interest to Jordan and the Arab world and relate to the security of this region and affect its future.
- Collect information, studies, and reports that achieve the objectives of the Center.
- Placing the available information and the results of the studies and research conducted by the Center at the disposal of the concerned authorities by the means they deem appropriate and in accordance with instructions developed for this purpose.
- Meet the need to conduct studies and research requested by the Center according to its capabilities and special instructions developed for this purpose.
Article (5): The Center shall achieve its objectives by the following means:
- Assign researchers from inside and outside the University to carry out studies, research, and consultations that are consistent with the objectives of the Center.
- Organizing conferences, seminars, and courses on local, regional or international topics.
- Publish research and studies as the Center deems appropriate.
- Issuing a specialized periodical.
- Cooperation and coordination with centers, institutes, and institutions with similar purposes and interests.

Article (6): The Center shall have a Council called (Center Council) consisting of (7) seven members, including the Director of the Center, appointed by the President after receiving recommendations from the Board of Trustees for a renewable period of two years, and the President shall elect from among them the Chairman of the Council.

Article (7): The Council of the Center shall assume the following powers:
- Drawing up the Center's policy, approving its programs and plans, and supervising their implementation.
- Discuss the draft budget of the Center prepared by the Director.
- Discuss and approve the annual report on the work and activities of the Center.
- Consider any other matters relevant to the objectives of the Center.

Article (8): The Director of the Center shall assume the following powers and responsibilities:
- The Director shall be responsible for managing the work of the Center in order to ensure the proper functioning of the Center and the implementation of the decisions and plans approved by the Council in accordance with the University's law, regulations, and instructions.
- Assign the appointment of the staff of the Center to the Chairman of the Council.
- Develop the draft budget of the Center.
- Prepare an annual report on the work and activities of the Center.
Article (9): The appointments of the employees of the Center shall be subject to the regulations and instructions of the University.

Article (10): An annual amount shall be allocated to the Center's expenses in the University's budget.

Article (11): The Center may provide its services to the Jordanian, Arab and international communities.

Article (12): The Center may accept donations and grants.

Article (13): The President of the University, the chairman, and the Director of the Center are responsible for the application and implementation of the provisions of these instructions.

Article (14): The Board of Trustees shall decide on matters not provided for in these instructions.